

Tri-Rail Train Dispatchers unanimously vote in favor of the ATDA as their representative

The ATDA would like to welcome the Tri-Rail Train Dispatchers. On December 6th, the Tri-Rail train dispatchers voted unanimously in favor of the American Train Dispatchers Association as their representative. Tri-Rail is owned by the South Florida Regional Transit Authority and the train dispatchers are employed by Herzog Transit Services, Inc. Beginning after the New Year, the ATDA will begin negotiating towards their first collective bargaining agreement. Once again, welcome to the ATDA.
